Get the facts

At GE VentureMine, we provide a confidential way for you to evaluate new business opportunities and contact the entrepreneurs whose plans match your investment objectives.

An early look at the latest companies

We continually receive a range of innovative business opportunities from new dot coms and B2B service providers, to the next wave of wireless communications and biotechnology firms. Whether you are an Angel Investor, Venture Capitalist, or Corporate Investor, our customized tools will enable you to match your investment objectives with Entrepreneurs looking for Investors like you.

Your privacy is important to us

When you are matched with an Entrepreneur, they are shown summary information about you. You can keep most of your Investor Profile and Strategy private, or cloaked, until you are ready to share this information with an Entrepreneur. You control when you disclose "hidden" information, which includes your contact information and industry experience, by selecting "Cloak" on your Investor Profile.

Help and Feature Descriptions

QuickMatch

This preliminary searching tool gives you a basic understanding of how we match your company with potential investment partners. First, fill out the brief form describing your business and type of funding sought. Then run a QuickMatch to see how many investors are generally interested in your business model. By modifying your search criteria, you will notice the effects on your number of matches. Once you become a Member, you can perform a Detailed Match to receive all the relevant information on an investor, and initiate the discussion process.

"Our goal is to help you reach your goals"

Detailed Match

Only registered Members may use this unique function of GE VentureMine. After logging into our marketplace as an entrepreneur or accredited investor, you will enter more specifics about your profile and strategy. By running a Detailed Match, entrepreneurs will see a list of interested investors, while investors will see business opportunities that meet their criteria. Both parties can then contact one another through confidential e-mail and exchange additional information from their Private Folder.

Business Opportunity Search

Investors may also run an interactive search for business opportunities in the marketplace. Click here for a preview. Following your registration and qualification as an accredited investor, you may select your exact preferences and perform a search to find only those companies that meet your investment goals. You can review Summary information prior to requesting an entrepreneur's entire business plan. Please note that the results generated from this advanced search are not saved.

Private Folder

Each Member has a secure holding area for storing any legal documents, financial data or additional materials. Once you've established communications with an interested party, you may share these documents as attachments to your e-mail. You may store up to 5 MB of information.

Thank you for using GE VentureMine!
